T H E P R E S I D E N T S P E A K S :

Dear Colonelettes!

We have about completed our half-year mark for the achievements of Kentucky Colonel Chapter. The next two months will be full of activities. The Regional Meeting in Nashville and I do wish a few more of you would consider going so that we could attain our star on the banner for having ten or more at the meeting. It is so close, I think with a little push you will reconsider and come along with us.

Boss night is about to be finalized as to plans and it is going to be one of the finest ones. Our scholarship month and anniversary is shaping up. We are running short on the collection of the ads as compared to last year and we need to get busy and get these in by the 1st. of May.

The last checking, the Woman of the Year and Boss letters were not coming in very fast. Do hope you will get these in by the deadline.

The most urgent need is the Ways and Means Committee to come up with something for additional money. We have been waiting for them to give us their plans. This is very important and money will be needed to further the goals of the Chapter. After our scholarship fund is met, we will be getting a little close to the bottom of the barrel. I hope the committee will be giving us something to start to work on by this month's meeting date.

See you at the Dinner Meeting and welcome to all of the new members we have.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Debbie Carroll is a special assistant in public relations and a home economist for Mammoth Cave PCA. She graduated from WKU in December, 1974 with a B.S. in home economics, textiles and clothing merchandising. She plans and coordinates educational and social activities for the members wives in a nine county area. She edits a monthly employee newsletter, and co-edits a newsletter received by 5,500 members, and is in charge of all news releases and advertisement.

BOSS NIGHT NEWS

Boss Night will be held on June 14, 1976, Monday, at the Red Carpet Inn. A social hour will begin at 6:30 p.m. with dinner following at 7:30 p.m. The cost per person is $6.00. Dress will be formal. We need to get your reservations as soon as possible. Reservation forms are available at the meeting. Give your reservation form and your money to Florence Perkins.

The deadline for ads for the souvenir program is May 15. We have sold $1,500 worth of ads so far. This is below the amount we sold last year. So if you know of anyone you might call on to buy an ad, please do so. Remember the main purpose of the ad sales is scholarships. The Boss Night Committee had a meeting on April 20 and apparently planning is progressing very well. Everyone has been assigned to to a committee, so pitch in and do your part.

PUBLIC RELATIONS:

JUST FOR LAUGHS

Shoe salesman to customer: "There's a special on today. Buy one shoe for $35 and you get the other shoe free."

Bob Barnes

Woman at employment agency: "I'll take any job that gets me out of the house. My husband retired yesterday."

Serrano

According to a professor of journalism, the fellow who complains about being misquoted usually means, "I said it, but I wish now I hadn't."

Elliott Brack

During the filming of the movie Rosebud, director Otto Preminger said to actor John Lindsay, former mayor of New York City, "John, this is where you see your daughter for the first time. It must bring tears to your eyes. I'll Show you how to cry." "Don't bother," replied Lindsay. "After eight years of being mayor of New York, no one has to teach me how to cry."

Shirley Knight

People who think time heals everything haven't tried sitting it out in a doctor's waiting room.

Chronicle

Stormy weather is what man needs from time to time to remind him he's not really in charge of anything.

Bill Vaughan

In asking for a raise, the employee hinted that several companies were after him.

"What companies?" his boss asked.

The man replied, "The gas company, electric company, finance company....."

Lucille Harper

A man said he'd bought a two-story house. "The real-estate broker told me one story before I bought it, and another story afterward." E. G. Rosenblatt

With all the talk about recession, it's no wonder my little five-year-old returned home after her first week of kindergarten and announced that she had been laid off for two days.

DID YOU KNOW

The first chapter of ABWA, appropriately named "Pioneer Chapter," was installed in Kansas City, Missouri, on November 21, 1949. ABWA has been readily accepted. Now in all fifty states and Puerto Rico, we now have over 1,300 chapters with eighty-three thousand members.

Since ABWA's inception, individual chapters have been encouraged to sponsor scholarships for women. The number of chapter sponsored scholarships has grown until, last year alone, chapters invested over $700,000 locally for scholarships in their communities. In addition, contributions from chapters and others are responsible for the Stephen Burton Memorial Educational Fund, the national educational fund of the Association, which provides college and graduate school scholarships for qualified women. Since the national fund's creation in 1953, scholarships have been awarded to over 2,000 students, in forty states. All chapters have the privilege of recommending scholarship candidates. The fund provides larger scholarships than individual chapters normally sponsor. The nine members of the National Board of Directors of the American Business Women's Association serve as Trustees of this fund.

Hilary A. Burton, Jr. is responsible for the founding of the ABWA. Conferences with business leaders and women engaged in various occupations confirmed his belief that there was a need for an organization designed to keep women in business informed on improved techniques, to encourage better employer-employee relations, and to increase their self-confidence and efficiency.

WHO'S WHO IN ABWA

DIANN SHOULTZ lives at 1701 Glendale Avenue. She is employed as a cost accountant for the Kentucky Rib-Eye Briarpatch here in Bowling Green. She graduated from Cumberland County High School and attended Indiana University. She is our current scrapbook chairwoman. Her hobbies include reading and boating. She describes her personality as carefree and happy-go-lucky. She believes you should enjoy life until the last day. She says that in ABWA we should continue working together as an organization and not as an individual.

MARY SCOTT LAND lives at Lot 16, Shive Lane Estates. She has one son, Jay Thomas. She attended Bowling Green High. She is the chairwoman of the public relations committee. And, she has been chairwoman of the auditing committee. Her hobbies include sewing, bowling, golf, tennis and knitting. She enjoys meeting new people and learning new things. She considers herself as outgoing, happy, and carefree. She says we should live life to the fullest.

WHO'S WHO IN ABWA

JANE JONES lives at Route #3 with her husband, Larry and son, Troy. She is employed by Mammoth Cave PCA as an office assistant. She attended Bristow High and Western Kentucky University with a B.S. in business education. She also has completed six hours in the master's program. She is currently co-chairwoman of the program committee. She also has been co-chairwoman of the spring enrollment event. She enjoys ceramics, crafts, sewing, water skiing, bowling and basketball. She says her personality is changable. She belives we should treat each day as if it were our last. As for ABWA, she states that we need more of the "WE" attitude, instead of "I".

MARTHA RAYMER lives on Route #14 with her husband, Gary and son, Todd, and before fall there will be one more. She is an assistant cashier for the American National Bank. She attended Bristow High School and Bowling Green Business College and Western Kentucky University. Her hobbies include bowling, archery and reading. She enjoys being with her family and friends. She says her personality is friendly and outgoing. She says we should enjoy each day to the fullest. In ABWA she says all members should work together on all ideas and projects, making them better businesswomen and a better organization.

INVOCATION

Lord, in the quiet of this evening hour,
We come to Thee for Wisdom, and for Power;
To view thy world through only love-filled eyes;
To Grow in understanding; to be wise
And sure to see thy guiding light, and thus
To know each other as Thou knowest us.

AMEN

BENEDICTION

O Guiding Spirit, Guardian of our days,
Be with us as we go our separate ways,
Help us to feel those thoughts that lift and bless,
To know a closer bond of friendliness,
To see thy beauty always - everyday,
Translated into living - this we pray.

AMEN

AEMA'S CREED

"IF YOU WORK FOR A MAN, in Heaven's name, work for him. If he pays you wages which supply your bread and butter, work for him, speak well of him, stand by him and stand by the institution he represents. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleaverness. If you must vilify, condemn and eternally disparage - resign your position, and when you are outside, damn to your heart's content, but as long as you are part of the institution do not condemn it. If you do that, you are loosening the tendrils that are holding you to the institution, and will at the first high wind that comes along be uprooted and blown away, and probably will never know the reason why."

ALWAYS GIVE YOUR BEST

NO ONE CAN ASK MORE OF YOU.
